

Social Media & Your Workplace

New issues arising from the ever-changing social media scene

One of the hottest areas of employment law today is the intersection between social media and the law. The rise in popularity of sites such as Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter have created issues in the employment law arena. Please join Jennifer R. Petersen, an employment and labor law attorney with Gross & Welch, as she discusses the latest legal updates regarding social media in the workplace, decisions from the NLRB and how to effectively write social media policies for your employee handbook and employment agreements.

Gross & Welch
Friday, November 11, 2011
8 to 9 am
No charge!

2120 South 72nd Street, Suite 1500 (72nd & Mercy)

Please RSVP by Tuesday, November 8

info@grosswelch.com • 402.392.1500

Continental Breakfast Provided